Month: November

Weeks 1–4 — the complete month of November (Week 3 is a 3-day school week; Thanksgiving closes school Thu & Fri)

Mrs. Bear's Curriculum Supplement

Mrs. Bear's Teacher's Supplement Workbook

Monday

MONTH: November WEEK: 1 DAY: Monday

Character Trait: Be Grateful | Weekly Word: Firefighter — bombero (bohm-beh-roh) (see the Workbook vocabulary card for the sign-language card)

Morning Meeting: Morning Song, Meeting Daily Routine, Intro Community Helpers — show pictures, Sing A Helper Song.
Music & Movement: Community Count.
Reading / Literacy: Helpers in My Community.
Health & Fitness: Let's Play Catch.

Craft of the Day (Small Group)

Community Helper Collage

Materials: Community helper clip art cutouts (from Resources), washable paint, background paper, glue

Steps:

1. Cut out a variety of community helper clip-art figures ahead of time.
2. Let each child put paint on the cutouts and press them all over their paper to build a collage.
3. Talk about who each helper is and what they do as the class creates.

Bonus Skill Building Activity (optional)

Play Dough Fun: Set out playdough and simple tools for open-ended sensory play.

Teacher Notes

WORKBOOK PAGES 1–2 — hand the Student Workbook to each child and open to these pages:

- Page 1: Community Helper Poster (Vocabulary)
- Page 2: Octagon Hunt: Red (Morning Work)

Content verified against this classroom's own November Weekly Lesson Plan grid (audited 2026-08-22). Theme "Community Helpers" and Character Trait "Be Grateful" are constant for the whole month per the grid. Math Circle focus shape: Octagon (weeks 1-2), Rectangle (weeks 3-4). Letter of the Week (G, X, then T) is carried down from the Three/Fours classroom's November grid, since Twos' own grid carries no letter content this month. Week 3 is a 3-day school week — Thanksgiving closes school Thursday and Friday. Detailed minute-by-minute delivery: see the classroom's existing Opening-to-Close SOP / Daily Schedule Teacher Script.

Health & Fitness: Stomp Stomp Tip Toe.

Craft of the Day (Small Group)

Fire Fighter with Handprints

Materials: Pre-cut fire fighter face/hat shapes, red and orange washable paint for handprints, white paper, black marker

Steps:

1. Give each child a fire-fighter face-and-hat piece to glue onto their paper.
2. Press each child's hands into red/orange paint and print two handprints beside the face like flames.
3. Write "Fire Fighter [child's name]" underneath — do NOT write "F is for fire fighter," write the child's actual name so it's personal to them.

What it should look like:

Fire Fighter with Handprints — reference photo from this classroom's Instructions packet.

Bonus Skill Building Activity (optional)

Large Paper Coloring: Roll out a big sheet of butcher paper and let children color together as a group.

Craft of the Day (Small Group)

Tissue Paper Fire

Materials: Fire-shape outline (red/orange/yellow construction paper), crumpled red/orange/yellow tissue paper squares, glue

Steps:

1. Give each child a fire-shape outline.
2. Let each child crumble small squares of red, orange, and yellow tissue paper.
3. Help each child glue the crumbled tissue squares onto the fire shape to build a 3-D flame texture.

Also offered today: Fire Theme Sensory Bag — Gallon zip-top bag, red/orange/yellow washable paint, packing tape

What it should look like:

Fire Theme Sensory Bag (today's second small-group activity) — reference photo from this classroom's Instructions packet.

Second Small-Group Activity Today

Fire Theme Sensory Bag

Materials: Gallon zip-top bag, red/orange/yellow washable paint, packing tape

Steps:

1. Squeeze a few dollops of red, orange, and yellow paint into a sealed zip-top bag and tape the edges down flat on the table.

2. Let each child push, swirl, and blend the paint colors through the bag with their fingers — a mess-free way to explore fire colors mixing together.

Bonus Skill Building Activity (optional)

Red Finger Paint: Set out red washable finger paint for open-ended painting, reinforcing this week's focus color.

Teacher Notes

WORKBOOK PAGES 4–5 — hand the Student Workbook to each child and open to these pages:

Health & Fitness: Follow the Leader March.

Craft of the Day (Small Group)

Veterans Are the Heart of America

Materials: "Veterans Are the Heart of America" printed heart page, green and brown paper strips, glue, paintbrush

Steps:

1. Trace or use a printed heart outline on the page.
2. Give each child strips of green and brown paper — torn strips are easier for little hands than cut ones.
3. Let each child use a paintbrush to "paint" glue inside the heart, then glue their torn camouflage-color paper onto the heart.

What it should look like:

Veterans Are the Heart of America — reference photo from this classroom's Instructions packet.

Reading / Literacy: Thanksgiving is for Giving Thanks.
Health & Fitness: Kick the Ball.

Craft of the Day (Small Group)

Pluck the Turkey — Fine Motor Activity

Materials: A cardboard/foam turkey body attached to the front of an upside-down colander, large craft feathers, tongs or large tweezers, a shallow tub

Steps:

1. Set the turkey-colander inside a shallow tub with the tongs and feathers.
2. Put the feathers in the colander's holes, then let each child use the tongs to pull or "pluck" a feather out.
3. Let each child have fun putting the feathers back into the holes, too — great tong/pincer-grip practice.

Also offered today: Your Favorite Turkey — A printed photo of each child's face, a brown turkey-body cutout, colored paper feathers, glue

What it should look like:

Pluck the Turkey — reference photo from this classroom's Instructions packet. "Your Favorite Turkey" (today's other listed craft) uses a photo of an individual child's face glued into the turkey, so it is not reproduced here — this fine-motor activity photo is shown instead.

Second Small-Group Activity Today

Your Favorite Turkey

Materials: A printed photo of each child's face, a brown turkey-body cutout, colored paper feathers, glue

Steps:

1. Let each child build a turkey using a photo of their own face for the turkey's head.
2. Help each child glue on colorful paper feathers around the body.
3. Remember — it doesn't have to look perfect, or even like a turkey. It's the child's own creation!

Bonus Skill Building Activity (optional)

Tear & Glue Brown Paper: Give each child a simple outline and torn brown paper scraps to glue inside it — fine-motor practice tied to this week's focus color.

Mrs. Bear's Teacher's Supplement Workbook

Monday

MONTH: November WEEK: 4 DAY: Monday

Character Trait: Be Grateful | Weekly Word: Cook — cocienero (koh-see-neh-roh) (see the Workbook vocabulary card for the sign-language card)

Morning Meeting: Morning Song, Meeting Daily Routine, Teacher.
Music & Movement: Fancy Dancing — Mr. Al.
Reading / Literacy: The Thankful Book.
Health & Fitness: Roll and Catch.

Craft of the Day (Small Group)

Rectangles-in-a-Rectangle Glue Craft

Materials: A large rectangle outline per child, rectangles pre-cut in several smaller sizes and colors, glue

Steps:

1. Give each child a large rectangle outline.
2. Let each child glue the different-sized smaller rectangles inside the large one however they like.
3. Talk about big/little and reinforce this month's focus shape (rectangle) as they work.

Bonus Skill Building Activity (optional)

Finger Paint with Brown, Red & Yellow: Set out this month's three focus colors as washable finger paint for open-ended painting and review.

WORKBOOK PAGES 26–27 — hand the Student Workbook to each child and open to these pages:

- Page 26: Community Helpers Take-Home Week 4 (title page) (Vocabulary)
- Page 27: Rectangle Hunt: Brown (Morning Work)

Content verified against this classroom's own November Weekly Lesson Plan grid (audited 2026-08-22). Theme "Community Helpers" and Character Trait "Be Grateful" are constant for the whole month per the grid. Math Circle focus shape: Octagon (weeks 1-2), Rectangle (weeks 3-4). Letter of the Week (G, X, then T) is carried down from the Three/Fours classroom's November grid, since Twos' own grid carries no letter content this month. Week 3 is a 3-day school week — Thanksgiving closes school Thursday and Friday. Detailed minute-by-minute delivery: see the classroom's existing Opening-to-Close SOP / Daily Schedule Teacher Script.

Craft of the Day (Small Group)

Glue Shapes into a Garbage Truck

Materials: Green and orange paper rectangles/squares, black paper circles (wheels), a yellow paper strip, crumpled brown/white/yellow paper scraps ("trash"), glue

Steps:

1. Let each child glue a green rectangle (the truck body) and an orange rectangle (the truck's back) onto their paper.
2. Help each child glue on four black circle wheels and a small yellow strip for the truck's window/light.
3. Let each child crumple brown, white, and yellow paper scraps and glue them on top like a load of trash.

What it should look like:

Create a Shape Garbage Truck — reference photo from this classroom's Instructions packet.

Bonus Skill Building Activity (optional)

Truck Painting: Roll toy trucks through shallow trays of paint and drive them across paper to leave tire-track prints.

Health & Fitness: Follow The Leader.

Craft of the Day (Small Group)

Make and Decorate Your Own Mailbox Envelope

Materials: A large paper envelope shape per child, crayons/markers, stickers (optional)

Steps:

1. Give each child a large paper envelope shape.
2. Let each child decorate their own envelope with crayons, markers, or stickers and write (or scribble) their name on it.
3. Hang the finished envelopes up as each child's own "mailbox" for the rest of the week's mail activities.

Also offered today: Mail Sort Worksheet — Pre-cut shape "letters" (Workbook page 32), two mailbox pictures marked with matching shapes, glue

No reference photo available: The Instructions packet's photo for this craft shows finished mailbox envelopes with real, identifiable children's family photos glued onto them (and names visible) — excluded for privacy. No face-free substitute exists for this specific craft.

Second Small-Group Activity Today

Mail Sort Worksheet

Materials: Pre-cut shape "letters" (Workbook page 32), two mailbox pictures marked with matching shapes, glue

Steps:

1. Cut out the mail pieces, each marked with a shape (octagon or rectangle).
2. Have each child match/glue the letters into the mailbox with the same shape.

Bonus Skill Building Activity (optional)

Play Dough Fun: Set out playdough and simple tools for open-ended sensory play.

Health & Fitness: Run and Race.

Craft of the Day (Small Group)

Write Letters & Mail to a Friend's Mailbox

Materials: Small paper "letters," crayons, each child's decorated envelope from Thursday

Steps:

1. Let each child "write" (scribble or dictate) a short letter or drawing for a friend.
2. Help each child fold or place their letter into an envelope.
3. Let each child play mail carrier and deliver their letter to a friend's mailbox from yesterday, then review all the community helpers learned about this month as a class.

No reference photo available: This craft reuses each child's own decorated envelope from Thursday (which itself is excluded for privacy — see Thursday's note). No separate finished-example photo exists in the Instructions packet for this activity.

Bonus Skill Building Activity (optional)

Octagon and Rectangle Collage: Set out pre-cut octagons and rectangles in this month's colors for children to glue onto a background paper, reviewing both focus shapes.
