school

Spanish - escuela (ehs-kweh-lah)

Baby Sign Language.com

School is signed by clapping your flat, open hands together, with the top hand's fingers perpendicularly angled to the bottom's. Lay your non-dominant hand open, palm facing up, then bring down your dominant hand to clap the two together. It is as if you are the teacher, clapping your hands to get your students' attention.

teacher

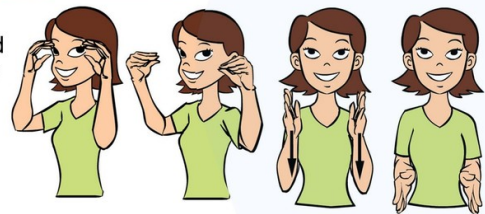

Spanish - profesor (proh-feh-sohr)

Make the teacher sign by signing teach and then person. First, sign by placing both hands on the sides of your head and closing your fingers and your thumbs a short distance away from your forehead, in close proximity to your ears. Finish the sign by holding your parallel, open palms facing each other, and bring them down from shoulder level to waist level, completing the sign for person.

friend

Spanish - amigo (ah-mee-goh)

Baby Sign Language.com

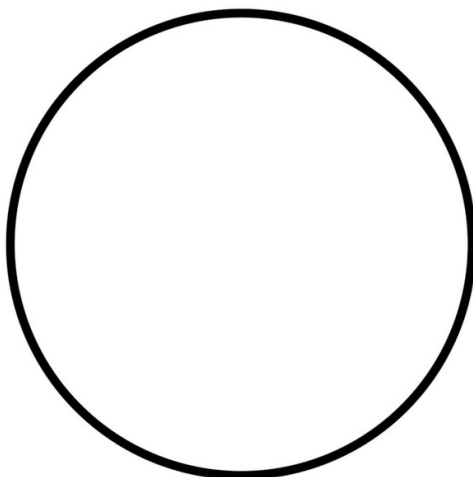

To make the sign for friend, hold out both of your index fingers hooked in a curved or 'C'-like shape. Holding one hand with your hook index facing up, hook the second index into the first. Then reverse the position for the hands and do it again. It is like your fingers are best friends and giving each other a hug.

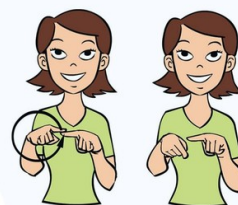

circle

Spanish - circulo (seer-koo-loh)

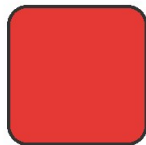

Baby Sign Language.com

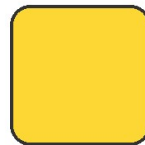

To sign circle, start with your index finger of your non-dominant hand pointing forward in front of your body. Then take your dominant hand index finger and make a circle, starting and ending at the stationary index finger of the non-dominant hand.
