Claudia Maps Her Community

A Mrs. Bear and Claudia Story

Mrs. Bear welcomed Claudia to the neighborhood map table. Today the group would practice what is a community?. At first, Claudia could not decide which places belonged on her community map. Claudia frowned and wanted to stop. Mrs. Bear knelt beside her and said, "Let's make a plan." Together they decided to identify places people use together and add clear landmarks and roads. Claudia tried again. Soon, her map connected the school, library, park, homes, and fire station. Claudia smiled. She learned that a community is made of people and places that help one another. Mrs. Bear wrote the word community on the board and asked the group to remember it tomorrow.

Claudia Tries a New Job

A Mrs. Bear and Claudia Story

Mrs. Bear welcomed Claudia to the community career fair. Today the group would practice community helpers and careers. At first, Claudia liked many careers and did not know which one to explore first. Claudia frowned and wanted to stop. Mrs. Bear knelt beside her and said, "Let's make a plan." Together they decided to ask each helper about the tools, skills, and service involved in the job. Claudia tried again. Soon, she chose to learn more about helping careers that solve problems. Claudia smiled. She learned that every community job uses different strengths to serve others. Mrs. Bear wrote the word career on the board and asked the group to remember it tomorrow.

Claudia's Fire-Safety Practice

A Mrs. Bear and Claudia Story

Mrs. Bear welcomed Claudia to the school safety practice area. Today the group would practice fire safety: stop, drop, and roll. At first, Claudia felt unsure about what to do when the alarm sounded. Claudia frowned and wanted to stop. Mrs. Bear knelt beside her and said, "Let's make a plan." Together they decided to listen to the adult, crawl low beneath smoke, exit, and meet at the safe place. Claudia tried again. Soon, she completed every step calmly and helped name the family meeting place. Claudia smiled. She learned that practicing a safety plan helps people respond calmly. Mrs. Bear wrote the word evacuate on the board and asked the group to remember it tomorrow.

Claudia Starts a Gratitude Journal

A Mrs. Bear and Claudia Story

Mrs. Bear welcomed Claudia to Mrs. Bear's writing table. Today the group would practice being grateful. At first, Claudia thought gratitude only meant naming big gifts or events. Claudia frowned and wanted to stop. Mrs. Bear knelt beside her and said, "Let's make a plan." Together they decided to notice one person, place, object, or small moment that helped today. Claudia tried again. Soon, she filled her first page with simple things she almost overlooked. Claudia smiled. She learned that gratitude helps us pay attention to everyday goodness. The Thank-You Walk

A Mrs. Bear and Claudia Story

Mrs. Bear welcomed Claudia to the neighborhood park. Today the group would practice optional thanksgiving take-home. At first, Claudia wanted a way to continue gratitude after the holiday meal. Claudia frowned and wanted to stop. Mrs. Bear knelt beside her and said, "Let's make a plan." Together they decided to walk slowly, collect safe fallen leaves, and name something appreciated at each stop. Claudia tried again. Soon, the family returned with a basket of leaves and new memories. Claudia smiled. She learned that gratitude can become a habit practiced anywhere. Mrs. Bear wrote the word habit on the board and asked the group to remember it tomorrow.
