Name: _____

Mrs. Bear's Curriculum Supplement

school

Spanish - escuela (ehs-kweh-lah)

Baby Sign Language.com

School is signed by clapping your flat, open hands together, with the top hand's fingers perpendicularly angled to the bottom's. Lay your non-dominant hand open, palm facing up, then bring down your dominant hand to clap the two together. It is as if you are the teacher, clapping your hands to get your students' attention.

I can build a shape bus

Cut out the different shapes for your child. Let them glue it together on another piece of paper anyway they want. Encourage them to try and draw their new friends in the window of the bus. Talk to your child about their new friends and teachers at school

FIND THE LETTER S

is for teacher

Spanish - profesor (proh-feh-sohr)

Make the teacher sign by signing teach and then person. First, sign by placing both hands on the sides of your head and closing your fingers and your thumbs a short distance away from your forehead, in close proximity to your ears. Finish the sign by holding your parallel, open palms facing each other, and bring them down from shoulder level to waist level, completing the sign for person.

friend

Spanish - amigo (ah-mee-goh)

Baby Sign Language.com

To make the sign for friend, hold out both of your index fingers hooked in a curved or 'C'-like shape. Holding one hand with your hook index facing up, hook the second index into the first. Then reverse the position for the hands and do it again. It is like your fingers are best friends and giving each other a hug.
