house

Spanish - casa (kah-sah)

The house sign is made by outlining the shape of a simple house. Extend your two hands, then starting at the roof, outline the slanting roof line - then the vertical walls. (We don't usually outline the ground.)

 Baby Sign Language.com

mommy

Spanish - mami (mah-mee)

To sign mommy, extend and spread your fingers apart on your dominant hand. With your pinkie facing forward, tap your thumb on your chin. The hand sign for mommy is the same as the hand sign for daddy, but signed lower on the face.

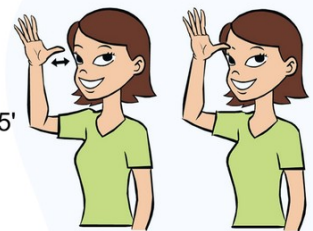

daddy

Spanish - papi (pah-pee)

To sign daddy, dad, or father, make the number '5' in ASL, extending and spreading out the five fingers on your dominant hand. Then tap the thumb end of your '5' hand on your forehead.

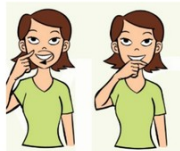

Mouth

Spanish – boca (boh-kah)

To sign mouth, trace the outline of your mouth with your dominant hand's index finger, starting from one corner of your mouth, then going around and back to the same corner.

Nose

Spanish – nariz (nah-rees)

To do the baby sign for nose, point to the nose with the index finger of your dominant hand.

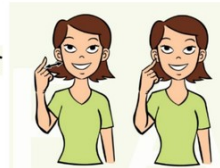

Ear

Spanish – oreja (oh-reh-hah)

To sign ear, just point to your ear with the index finger of your dominant hand.

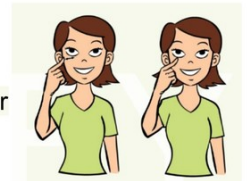

Eye

Spanish – ojo (oh-hoh)

To sign eye, just point to your eye with the index finger of your dominant hand.

Spanish - feliz (feh-lees)

To sign happy, take your open hand (or both hands) and brush up your chest a couple of times. The sign for happy is very similar to the sign for excited, but the difference is that with excited, your hands take turns touching either side of your chest and only the middle fingers brush against your chest. With happy, both open hands tend to touch the chest at the same time.

 Baby Sign Language.com

sad

Spanish - triste (trees -tah)

The sad sign looks like you are making tears fall down your face. Take both hands with fingers outstretched, and pull them from above your eyes down to about chest level. With emotional signs such as sad, you should make facial expressions that match the sign. Make a droopy face with downcast eyes while you make the sad sign.
